3. What is the Standardised Base Rate (SBR) ?

The SBR we offer on this product is based on the benchmark rate specified by Bank Negara Malaysia. The benchmark rate is currently set as the Overnight Policy Rate (OPR), which reflects the monetary policy stance as decided by the Monetary Policy Committee of Bank Negara Malaysia. In other words, SBR is the same as OPR.

4. What are possible scenarios to trigger a change in the SBR ?

The SBR can rise and fall due to changes in the benchmark rate, i.e. changes in the Overnight Policy Rate (OPR).

5. Historical SBR for the past 3 years

Note : The SBR was introduced on 1 August 2022. The dotted line shows the historical series of the OPR, which is the benchmark of the SBR

7. What are my obligations?

- All shares pledged or purchased are subject to Bank's valuation/ capping and must not exceed the Bank's approved Single Counter Exposure Limit (SCEL) and Counter Spread Limit (CSL). At any time the SCEL and/or the CSL have been breached, you are required to sell existing shares or provide other counters acceptable to the Bank whichever applicable.
- If the value of the securities held as collateral depreciates and the LSR reaches the Margin Call LSR or if the debit /outstanding balance is in excess of Approved Credit Limit, you are required to make repayment to reduce the debit/outstanding balance or to provide additional collateral acceptable to the Bank or sell existing shares within the prescribed time, whichever applicable.
- Repayment of total loan amount plus accumulated interest.

8. What if I fail to fulfill my obligation?

- Default Interest of 1% per annum above the Prescribed Rate on the amount in default or sum remaining unpaid.
- The Bank may force-sell or liquidate your collateral or set-off any credit balance in your account maintained with the Bank against any debit/ outstanding balance in this SMF account.
- Legal action may be taken against you.

9. What are the major risks?

- Investment risk as purchase of shares can have significant negative impact on the value and return on your investment due to unfavourable share price movements.
- The interest rate on this loan is variable and it may change according to changes in the reference rates. An increase in interest rate may result in higher interest payment. If you have problems meeting your loan obligations, contact us early to discuss repayment alternatives.

10. What do I need to do if there are changes to my contact details?

It is important that you inform us (written notice to be sent to the Share Investment Unit) of any change in your contact details to ensure that all correspondences reach you in a timely manner.
